He realized about thirty dollars from this "dropping" of other peoples' fire-arms, and Mr. Miller two more shot-guns lying in wait for him.

BADLY BEATEN.-At an early hour on Saturday morning a man named George Samuels, who lives in the lower part of the city, was set upon by two drunken men and badly besten for cheering for Tilden.

SCCAR HIGHER .- The election news, or something else, has had the effect of increasing the price of sugar. The figures have been growing higher for the past ten days, and on Saturday a telegram was reecived from Philadelphia announcing that settling the questions in controversy in the the price had gone up half a cent.

THE HIGH-SCHOOL ROLL OF HONOR.-In the High-School roll of honor as published Saturday morning, the first name of the in-termediate class, Carrie Drew, was put by mistake for Alice Ezekiel. At the request of the teacher who made the mistake, and in justice to Miss Alice Ezekiel, we would state that the first name on the roll of the intermediate class should have been Alice PERSONAL.-It was rumored on Saturday evening that Mr. Kennedy Palmer, well known in this city, had suddenly disappeared, and that some of his friends were anxious as to his safety. It will be gratifying to them to know that Mr. Palmer was quite well when last seen, which was in Philadelphia a day or two ago, whither he had gone to see the sights at the Centennial.

THE MOSAIC CLUB .- A number of prominent ladies of the city have perfected the organization of a dramatic and social club, which is to be called the Mosaic. Several dramatic entertainments have already been given by the amateurs of our city, and sais club embraces the principal talent thereof. They propose to develop the literary taste of its circle by dint of readings and plays, which will be given at intervals during the winter season. These entertainments will be repeated every two weeks at the Virginia Opera-House, which has been secured for the purpose, and they will con-clude severally with refreshments and a dance. The membership is qualified by invitation on the part of the inaugurators, and embraces about ninety of our most refined people. The first entertainment will be given on the 22d instant. The following are the lady managers: Mrs. Dr. F. D. Cunningham, Madame De Sibourg, Mrs. Dobbin, Mrs. J. A. Pleasants, Mrs. M. F. Pleaa its, Mrs. James Branch, Mrs. Charles U. READINGS TO-NIGHT .- Professor J. Willoughby Reade will give one of his popular entertainments at the Grace-Street Baptist church this evening.

RICHMOND, November 11, 1876.

Messrs. Editors: In vain I scanned yes terday's and to-day's Dispatch for the cus-tomary critic on the "Mozart musicale." Probably it was swallowed by the election excitement. However, you missed a great musical treat-i. e., the concerto for violin by Rode, performed by Mr. J. Peters. The execution of this sterling composition, devoid of any of the fashionable rope-dancing of modern bravura pieces, was faultless. Notwithstanding the length of the concerto (I believe it plays over fifteen minutes), not one of the audience seemed to grow tired. The beautiful melodies came with silver-bell clearness through the hall, and the expression was perfect. In the difficult rapid passages every note was clear and distinct. Mr. Peters knows how to draw a tone from his instrument that has not been heard in Richmond for a great many years. The applause during the performance, and especially at the close, was very flattering, and shows that Richmond people can appreciate fine music when they hear it. ONE WHO WAS PRESENT.
